BARGAINING UPDATE

October 14, 2016

- GTA and GUSD agreed to bargaining norms for this year's bargaining session.
- The District provided six different calendar options for the 2017-2018 school year; two of them have students starting the third week of August and the remaining four have students starting the fourth week August.
- The District gave a budget update. The District has a very healthy budget this year and next year. Once Proposition 55 passes, the budget projections for future years will increase dramatically. Vote YES on Prop 55!!
- The District provided a cost analysis for completely getting rid of elementary yard duty, as requested by GTA.
- We reviewed Articles 7 (Hours of Employment), 11 (Class Size/Support Services Ratio) and 19 (School Based Management) to see where we left off last year and to review where we want to begin this year.

Next bargaining: November 3

Bargaining Team: Steve Field (Chairperson), Lenore Piskel, Angelina Thomas, Sarah Morrison, Vahe Tcharkhoutian, Sonya Lowe (CTA Executive Director)
